

NEBRASKA RULES OF BANKRUPTCY PROCEDURE

Adopted by the United States District Court for the District of Nebraska
April 15, 1997

Effective Date April 15, 1997

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

ORDER OF ADOPTION

GENERAL ORDER 97 - 03

The bankruptcy judges of this district requested a committee of the bankruptcy bar to submit to the Bankruptcy Court recommendations with regard to the amendment of the local bankruptcy rules. The committee finished its work in February of 1997. Notice of the proposed amended bankruptcy rules and notice of the comment period on such proposed rules was published in several newspapers located throughout the District of Nebraska.

The final date for comments was April 7, 1997. Comments received were reviewed and incorporated into the proposed amended rules.

The bankruptcy judges have now considered the proposed amended rules and have determined that they are consistent with, but not duplicative of Acts of Congress and do not prohibit or limit the use of Official Forms. The bankruptcy judges have determined that the local rules do conform to the uniform numbering system prescribed by the Judicial Conference of the United States for bankruptcy rules. The bankruptcy judges now recommend to the United States District Court that the final draft of the rules submitted to the United States District Court on April 10, 1997, should be adopted by the District Court pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9029.

It is, therefore, ordered that the proposed amended local rules of the Bankruptcy Court as submitted to the District Court are adopted.

The amended Nebraska Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure are effective as of April 15, 1997.

DATED: April 15, 1997.

BY THE COURT:

Wm. G. Cambridge, Chief Judge

Richard G. Kopf, Judge

Thomas M. Shanahan, Judge

RULE 3015-4. CHAPTER 13 - DISMISSAL OF CASE UPON PAYMENT DEFAULT.

A. Notice of Payment Default. The Chapter 13 trustee may provide a debtor with Notice of Payment Default. The notice shall state the amount of the existing payment default and the date on which the next scheduled payment is due under the proposed plan or confirmed plan. The notice shall further state that under this Local Rule, the bankruptcy case will be dismissed upon the filing of a declaration by the Chapter 13 trustee unless, within 20 days after the date of the Notice of Payment Default, the debtor either cures the payment default and makes all payments due before expiration of the 20 day period or requests a hearing on the Notice of Payment Default. The Notice of Payment Default shall state the specific calendar date by which either the payment default must be cured or a hearing must be requested. The Chapter 13 trustee shall file a copy of the Notice of Payment Default and proof of service with the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court.

B. Cure Default or Request Hearing. Within 20 days of the mailing of a Notice of Payment Default, the debtor shall either:

2. file a motion with the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court requesting that the Notice of Payment Default be set for hearing to permit the debtor to show good cause why the case should not be dismissed. If the motion sets forth facts in support of specific allegations of good cause, the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court shall schedule the Notice of Payment Default for hearing upon affidavit evidence. The filing of a contested matter by the debtor, such as an amended or modified plan or motion to suspend payments, shall not constitute a request for hearing under this Local Rule and shall not, alone, preclude dismissal of the case. However, any such contested matter or amended plan, if a basis for allegations that the case should not be dismissed, shall be filed within the 20 day period in compliance with Local Rule 9013-1.

C. Dismissal upon Payment Default upon Declaration of the Chapter 13 Trustee. A Chapter 13 case shall be dismissed upon the filing of an affidavit by the Chapter 13 trustee establishing that Notice of Payment Default was provided to the debtor and debtor's counsel and that the debtor did not timely cure the payment default or request a hearing. The affidavit shall state that the Chapter 13 trustee has complied with this Local Rule, has sent a copy of the Notice of Payment Default to the debtor, debtor's counsel, and the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court, that the debtor has not timely cured the payment defaults or requested a hearing on the Notice of Default and that the case should be dismissed.

P. 9013-1 and subsection A.1. of this rule are complied with, the Court shall consider such submission as meeting the requirement that a hearing be held and no further hearing shall be scheduled. The Court will then consider entry of the confirmation order without further notice.

B. Payment of United States Trustee Fees in Chapter 11 Cases. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, all quarterly fees payable to the United States Trustee under 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a)(6) shall be paid on or before the effective date of the plan. All Chapter 11 plans shall provide that the debtor will pay post-confirmation quarterly fees to the United States Trustee when due, as required by 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a)(6).

R. Bankr. P. 4001; and (3) provide notice thereof to the moving party. The hearing may be treated as a preliminary hearing pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(e) if the Court so elects. In all cases in which a trustee has been appointed, the trustee or interim trustee shall be named and served as an additional responding party. The moving party shall serve the motion, proposed affidavit or declaration evidence or a detailed summary thereof and notice of the hearing date and the specific calendar date which any resistance with evidentiary summary must be filed and served. The notice shall state that Local Rule 4001-1 applies. The motion, evidence and notice of hearing and resistance date shall be mailed by the moving party within three (3) days of its receipt from the Clerk and proof of notice shall be filed before the resistance date. If no timely resistance is filed, the Court will rule on the motion for relief from stay without further notice or hearing. If a timely resistance is filed and served, with evidentiary material or summary, a hearing will take place as scheduled pursuant to this Local Rule, and the moving party and resisting party shall appear at the hearing unless the matter has been resolved, in which case a party must appear and make a record unless excused pursuant to Neb. R. Bankr. P. 9019-1.

E. Relief from Stay - Applicability of Neb. R. Bankr. P. 9013-1. 1. Caption. If a pleading or motion requests an expedited hearing or an expedited ruling, the caption of the motion shall include the language "Request for Expedited Hearing" or "Request for Expedited Ruling."

2. Application. All motions containing a request that a hearing or bar date be set upon shortened notice shall state the nature of the request; the name of counsel for the opposing party, if known; the reasons for seeking an order shortening notice; and points and authorities in support thereof. All such applications shall state facts that justify the setting of a hearing or bar date on shortened notice. Notice of the application for order shortening time is not required. The application for order shortening time will be determined ex parte by the Court, subject to the right of any party to object to the adequacy of notice pursuant to subsection B. below.

3. Scope of Notice Required. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the moving party shall give notice of both the order shortening time and the substance of the underlying motion to all parties to whom notice of the underlying motion is required to be given by the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure or by these Local Rules, as well as to any other party that is likely to be adversely affected by the granting of the underlying motion.

4. Proof of Notice to Be Presented at Hearing on the Substantive Motion. It shall be the duty of the party that has obtained an order shortening time:

a. Telephone Notice. To make a good faith effort to advise all other parties and their counsel, if known, by telephone and confirming letter or by such other means as are reasonably calculated to give equally prompt notice of the date, time and substance of the motion being scheduled for a shortened bar date or heard on shortened notice.

b. Expected Attendance. To advise the Court in writing of efforts to contact other parties and their counsel and whether any other counsel, after such efforts to advise parties and their counsel, has requested to be present at the time the motion is presented to the Court.

c. Transmittal of Papers. To transmit copies of all moving papers to all parties as soon as is practicable.

d. Declaration of Notice. To present a declaration or professional statement of the efforts to communicate with opposing parties and their counsel or present to the Court a declaration setting forth facts sufficient to show why the motion should be heard despite failure to contact opposing parties.

B. Resistance to Shortened Notice. At any time before the conclusion of the hearing on the underlying motion or before the expiration of the resistance period, any party may object to the adequacy of the notice received and seek a continuance for good cause shown.

RULE 9006-2. CONTINUANCES OF SCHEDULED HEARINGS

A. Continuance upon Stipulation. As soon as all parties in interest stipulate for the continuance of a hearing on a motion, they shall immediately notify the Courtroom deputy of their stipulation which shall be subject to approval by the Court as required in subsection D. below. Unless the continuance is approved by the Court, at least one party must appear at the scheduled hearing.

B. Continuance upon Motion. If a party wants to continue a hearing and all parties in interest will not so stipulate, a motion for the continuance shall be filed with the Court and served upon all previously noticed parties at least two days before the day set for the hearing. The motion shall set forth in detail the reasons therefor and shall state whether any continuance has been previously granted.

C. Notice of Continuance. If a continuance is approved, the moving party shall be responsible for providing immediate telephone notice of the continuance to all parties expected to appear at the hearing.

D. Court Approval. No continuance (whether stipulated to by counsel or not) shall be effective unless the Court announces it in open Court or approves it in writing or the Courtroom deputy informs the parties that the judge has authorized the requested continuance.

RULE 9013-1. MOTION PRACTICE

A. Applicability.

1. Bankruptcy Case. The procedures of this Local Rule shall apply to all motions filed in bankruptcy cases except for those particular motions governed by Neb. R. Bankr. P. 1007-1.B., 1017-1, or 2014-1.B., and motions for relief from the automatic stay under Neb. R. Bankr. P. 4001-1.

2. Adversary Proceedings. The procedures of this Local Rule shall apply to all motions filed in adversary proceedings except for those particular motions listed in subsection 2 of Neb. R. Bankr. P. 7001-1.

B. Definition of Motion. "Motion" for purposes of Neb. R. Bankr. P. 9013-1, 9017-1, and 9072-1 includes headings and documents entitled "Motion," "Application," "Objection to Claim," "Disclosure Statement," "Plan" and other documents referred to in Appendix "A".

C. Form of Motion or Resistance. All motions shall plead facts which establish that the moving party is entitled to the relief sought. The motion shall cite statutory, case, or rule authority for granting relief. All motions shall conclude with an unambiguous request for particular relief. All resistances to any motion shall set forth the specific factual and legal basis and conclude with a particular request for relief. Motions and resistances shall be served in conformance with this Neb. R. Bankr. P. 9013-1.

D. Resistance Date. Unless otherwise ordered or otherwise provided for in a Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (see, e.g., Fed. R. Bankr. P. 4001(c) and (d) and 2002(b)), upon twenty (20) days notice to creditors and interested parties entitled to notice, the Court will consider ruling on the motion pursuant to subsection I below, unless a written resistance or request for hearing is filed and served on or before the deadline provided in the notice of the motion. If no resistance is timely filed and served, the movant shall submit a detailed order in conformance with Neb. R. Bankr. P. 9072-1, within 30 days after the objection date. The order shall not be submitted until after the resistance date and after movant has confirmed that no resistance is on file. See Neb. R. Bankr. P. 9072-1.

E. Notice. At the time a motion is filed, the moving party shall serve a copy of the motion on and shall provide notice to all parties in interest and those that have requested notice pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002 that this Nebr.R.Bankr.P. 9013-1 applies. The notice shall state the specific calendar date by which any resistance or request for hearing must be filed and served. The calculation of such date shall not include the additional three (3) days permitted under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9006(f) for service by mail even though the provisions of Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9006(f) shall continue to apply. The notice will be defective if it provides that a resistance or request must be filed within a specified number of days.

F. Proof of Service. Proof of service of the notice and motion shall be filed contemporaneously with the motion. The proof of service shall contain a list of recipients and shall attach a copy of the notice. The proof of service shall be filed as a document separate from the motion.

G. Service on the United States. Notice of a matter concerning an agency of the United States should be served on the United States Attorney General, the United States Attorney for the District of Nebraska and the agency representative at the address reflected in Appendix "B".

H. Withdrawal of Motions. Any request to withdraw a motion must be filed and personally served upon all previously noticed parties. As soon as a decision has been made to withdraw a motion, the moving party shall immediately notify the courtroom deputy.

I. Hearings on Motions. If the resistance period expires without the filing of any resistance or request for hearing, the Court will consider entering an order granting the relief sought without further notice or hearing. The movant shall submit a proposed order in conformance with Neb. R. Bankr. P. 9072-1. If a timely resistance or request for hearing is filed and served, the Clerk shall schedule a hearing upon not less than eleven (11) days notice. Parties shall exchange declarations or affidavits and documentary evidence before the hearing in accordance with Neb. R. Bankr. P. 9017-1. Unless otherwise ordered, oral arguments will be scheduled in the courtroom for Lincoln and Omaha cases and on telephone conferences for North Platte cases. The moving party shall arrange for a Court reporter to record telephone conference hearings if evidence is to be offered by any party.

J. Attendance at Hearings. Counsel for the moving party and any resisting party shall appear at any scheduled hearing unless the matter has been settled, continued or withdrawn in accordance with subsection H above.

RULE 9014-1. APPLICABILITY OF Fed. R. Civ. P. 16 AND 26 TO CONTESTED MATTERS

A. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court sua sponte or upon motion filed pursuant to Neb. R. Bankr. P. 9013-1, Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(b) shall not apply in contested matters. The Court will continue its practice of entering a pretrial order which require the filing of a joint preliminary pretrial statement by a date certain.

B. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court sua sponte or upon motion filed pursuant to Neb. R. Bankr. P. 9013-1, Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a), (d), and (f) shall not apply in contested matters.

RULE 9015-1. JURY TRIAL

A. Applicable Rules. Fed. R. Civ. P. 38, 47-51, and 81(c) apply in adversary proceedings defined in Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7001 and all proceedings wherein a party may have a right to trial by jury.

B. Demand for Jury Trial. A demand for jury trial shall be made in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 38 and filed in the office of the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court. After notice and hearing, the Bankruptcy Judge shall rule upon the demand for jury trial and make findings as to which issues are triable to a jury as a matter of right.

C. Reference Withdrawal. If the Bankruptcy Judge determines that a party has a right to a jury trial on some or all issues and if all of the parties to the particular contested matter or adversary proceeding have not given their express consent for the Bankruptcy Judge to conduct the jury trial on such issues, the Bankruptcy Judge shall request the United States District Court to withdraw the reference as to those matters triable to a jury and such other issues as the United States District Court shall determine.

RULE 9017-1. HEARINGS UPON DECLARATIONS AND DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE; DESTRUCTION OF EXHIBITS

A. General. Hearings scheduled on motions shall be governed by this Local Rule.

B. Evidence.

1. Declarations; Affidavits. Evidence submitted in support of or in opposition to motions shall be in the form of declarations or affidavits and documentary evidence. Oral testimony will not be permitted at hearings on motions unless otherwise ordered. A party may request leave to present oral testimony in support of or in opposition to a motion by filing and serving a written request at least five (5) days before the hearing date. Oral testimony on motions will rarely be permitted.

2. Exhibits. Except in the case of motions for relief from the automatic stay and objections to claims (see Neb. R. Bankr. P. 4001-1.D. and F. and 3007-1.A.), evidentiary materials, including document discovery material and declarations or affidavits, as are being relied upon ("exhibits"), shall be marked and numbered with exhibit tabs and served upon each interested party five (5) days before the scheduled hearing date. See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9006(a). In the case of motions for relief from the automatic stay, exhibits shall be marked and numbered with exhibit tabs and served upon each interested party three days before the scheduled hearing date. This requirement is satisfied by movant by complying with Neb. R. Bankr. P. 4001-1.D. If a telephone hearing is scheduled, exhibits shall be delivered at least three (3) days before the hearing date to the appropriate office of Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court along with a cover letter which refers to the telephone hearing by matter and date of hearing. Evidentiary materials must be identified and authenticated by declaration in conformity with 28 U.S.C. § 1746 or by affidavit. Each declaration or affidavit must be made on personal knowledge, set forth such facts as would be admissible in evidence, show affirmatively that the declarant is competent to testify to the matters stated therein, and identify the motion in connection with which the declaration or affidavit is filed. Evidentiary material attached to a brief but not offered or received in evidence shall not be considered. The Court may exclude evidence not filed and transmitted in accordance with these Local Rules.

C. Destruction of Exhibits. Exhibits will not be docketed.

The Clerk shall retain exhibits for a period of ninety (90) days after a final order is entered on a motion. The Clerk shall discard exhibits without notice ninety (90) days after final judgment or order has been entered on a motion provided that a final order has been entered on all appeals thereof.

RULE 9019-1. SETTLEMENTS AND STIPULATIONS

A. Notification to Court of Settlement of Matter Scheduled for Hearing. Parties shall inform the Courtroom deputy immediately by telephone or other expeditious means when any matter set for hearing has been settled out of Court. Upon receipt of notice of settlement, the Clerk shall cancel the hearing and direct the parties to file within fifteen (15) days a pleading which establishes that the matter was settled.

B. Effect of Stipulations. Except as otherwise provided by the Bankruptcy Code or the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, including without limitation Fed. R. Bankr. P. 4001, stipulations filed with the Court are binding upon the parties thereto in accordance with their terms. Without limiting any notices otherwise required by the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules or these Local Rules, a stipulation which provides for relief from the automatic stay which prohibits or conditions the use, sale or lease of property, provides for adequate protection, or use of cash collateral, or for obtaining credit, shall not be enforceable between the parties or as against third parties, unless it is approved by the court after notice and hearing as is required by Bankruptcy Rule 4001(d).

C. Stipulations Requiring Notice Under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 4001(d) or 9019. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the notice requirement of Fed. R. Bankr. P. 4001(d) and 9019 may be satisfied by compliance with Neb. R. Bankr. P. 9013-1 as complemented by Fed. R. Bankr. P. 4001(d) or 9019.

RULE 9072-1. ORDERS - PROPOSED

A. Form of Proposed Orders. Orders prepared by counsel and submitted to the Clerk for consideration by the Bankruptcy Judge shall be on plain bond paper and shall be separate from any other document. Counsel shall type "prepared and submitted by _____" in the lower left corner. The location of the Judge's signature shall be on that portion of an order which includes at least one sentence of the order. If the order exceeds one page, the additional pages shall be identified at the top by the name of the debtor, bankruptcy or adversary number, and page number.

B. Unopposed or Consent Orders. The Court will consider entry of an order granting the relief sought in a motion or application governed by Neb. R. Bankr. P. 9013-1 without waiting for a hearing if the moving party submits a proposed order to grant the relief sought, provided that:

1. the proposed order must be submitted after the resistance date has passed and it must be signed by all resisting parties, if any, and all parties requesting a hearing;

2. for a motion set for hearing pursuant to Neb. R. Bankr. P. 1007-1.B., 1017-1.A. or 2014-1.B., the proposed order must be signed by the United States Trustee;

3. for any other motion, including a motion set for hearing under Neb. R. Bankr. P. 9013-1, the proposed order must be signed by all adverse parties and all interested parties.

C. Deadline for Filing Proposed Order. When orders are required to be filed by a moving party or applicant pursuant to these Local Rules, the proposed order shall be submitted on a timely basis. In the case of motions under Neb. R. Bankr. P. 9013-1, the proposed order shall be filed after the resistance date and after having confirmed that no timely resistance was filed. In order to expedite prompt entry of orders in matters proceeding under Neb. R. Bankr. P. 9013-1, counsel should submit proposed orders modeled after Nebraska Official Form 9072-1, which is set forth as Appendix "N". However, the Court will consider other proposed orders where counsel conclude that the Official Form is not adequate. If a proposed order is not filed within 30 days after the resistance date, the motion is deemed abandoned and no action will be taken by the Court or Clerk except upon formal motion.

The debtor moves the Court for an order confirming plan and in support thereof states as follows:

1. The requirements for confirmation are met.

A. The total debt and administrative expenses provided for under the plan are as follows:

a. Total Priority Claims

1. Unpaid attorney's fees $_____

2. Taxes $_____

3. Other $_____

b. Total payments on secured claims $_____

c. Total payments on unsecured claims $_____

d. Subtotal $_____

e. Total Trustee's Compensation
(10% of debtor's payments) $_____

f. Total debt and administrative expenses $_____

(B) In accordance with the requirements of § 1325(a)(4), debtor asserts that as of the effective date of the plan, the value of property to be distributed under the plan on account of each allowed unsecured claim is not less than the amount that would be paid on such claim if the estate of the debtor were liquidated under Chapter 7, Title 11, United States Code, on such date. This contention is based upon the facts set forth below:

a. As of the date of the petition, the debtor owned property which should be part of the property of the estate, as defined by 11 U.S.C. § 541, if a petition had been filed under Chapter 7 of Title 11 of the United States Code. That property has a liquidation value after deduction of the amount of liens and encumbrances against such property of:

b. If debtor had filed a petition for relief under Chapter 7 on said date, debtor would be entitled to exempt from the estate property having a value of:

$_____

Debtor has claimed such property as exempt in the manner required by law.

c. If debtor had filed a petition under Chapter 7 on said date:

1. Debtor would owe debts entitled to priority under 11 U.S.C. § 507, including costs of administration, in the total amount of:

$_____

2. Debtor would owe allowed unsecured claims in the total amount of:

$_____

d. There would be available, after payment of priority claims, for distribution to creditors holding allowed unsecured claims an amount of:

$_____

e. It is estimated that distribution under Chapter 7 to each creditor holding an unsecured claim as of said date would be _____ % of each claim.¹

f. The Chapter 13 plan provides that creditors holding allowed unsecured claims will receive _____ % of each claim.¹

¹The actual percentage paid depends on the allowance of claims. For purposes of this motion it is assumed that all listed undisputed claims are allowed.

2. Debtor further requests pursuant to § 1322(C), that the confirmation order permit debtor to make payments for a period of more than 36 months.

The plan requires payment over a period of approximately ____ months. Cause exists for the payment over a period of more than three years but not longer than five years because:

IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

GENERAL ORDER

In the administration of cases under Chapter 12 of the Bankruptcy Code, a Chapter 12 Standing Trustee is appointed to participate in the administration of the case and to monitor plan performance post-confirmation.

Among the duties the Chapter 12 Standing Trustee is to perform are an accounting of property, examination of claims, provide information to creditors, and to file a final accounting. In addition, the Chapter 12 Standing Trustee is to examine the financial affairs of the debtor and to report on any mismanagement. The Chapter 12 Standing Trustee appears at confirmation hearings and monitors the payments required under the confirmed plan.

The Chapter 12 Standing Trustee is to be paid a fee of up to 10% of payments made under the confirmed plan. Such fee is to be paid from payments received by the Chapter 12 Standing Trustee. Since Chapter 12 was modeled on Chapter 13, there was a reasonable expectation that most, if not all, plan payments would be received by the Chapter 12 Standing Trustee for distribution.

However, because of the decision in In re Wagner, 36 F.3d 723 (8th Cir. 1994), plan payments can be made directly to creditors. Thus, although the Chapter 12 Standing Trustee would be entitled to a fee, there would be no funds available to pay it. This result threatens the integrity of the Chapter 12 process and creates an inequitable burden upon the Chapter 12 Standing Trustee who has statutory duties to perform but would not be paid. The court is aware that Chapter 12 Standing Trustees in other jurisdictions have resigned because of this problem.

The court finds that the Chapter 12 Standing Trustee performs a valuable service to the court and to the parties in the Chapter 12 process and should be retained. The court also finds that requiring a Chapter 12 debtor to pay a fee is not inequitable in view of the benefits derived from debtors' reorganization and from the services of the Chapter 12 Standing Trustee.

The court is empowered under the provisions of section 105 of the Bankruptcy Code to issue orders necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title. Such an order is necessary and appropriate in the District of Nebraska in order to assure that the Chapter 12 bankruptcy cases proceed in an orderly fashion and that the integrity of the Chapter 12 cases be maintained.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, that whether a Chapter 12 plan provides for payments to be made to creditors directly or through the Chapter 12 Standing Trustee, the debtor shall pay to the Chapter 12 Standing Trustee a fee, for each year of the plan, which shall be the lesser of 10% of all payments under the plan (or such other percentage as is set by the Attorney General or her delegate from time to time pursuant to the requirements of 28 U.S.C. § 586(e)), or $3,000.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that this General Order shall apply to all Chapter 12 plans confirmed in the District of Nebraska on or after January 1, 1997. This General Order supplements the Nebraska Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

APPENDIX "O"

DISCOVERY MOTION PRACTICE NELR 7.1(i) and 7.1(j)

(i) Discovery Motions--Prerequisite. To curtail undue delay in the administration of justice this court shall refuse to consider any and all motions relating to discovery unless moving counsel, as part of the motion, shall make a written showing that after personal consultation with counsel for opposing parties and sincere attempts to resolve differences, they are unable to reach an accord. This showing shall recite, additionally, the date, time and place of such conference and the names of all persons participating in them. As used in this subparagraph "counsel" includes parties who are acting pro se.

(j) Form of Discovery Motions. A discovery motion shall include in the motion or in an attachment a verbatim recitation of each interrogatory, request, answer, response, and objection that is the subject of the motion.

SUMMARY JUDGMENT

(Includes NELR 56.1 and NELR 7.1(a), (b) and (c))

56.1 Summary Judgment Procedure.

(a) Moving Party. The moving party shall set forth in the brief in support of the motion for summary judgment a separate statement of each material fact as to which the moving party contends there is no genuine issue to be tried and as to each shall identify the specific document or portion thereof or discovery response or deposition testimony (by page and line) which it is claimed establishes the fact.

(b) Opposing Party. The party opposing a motion for summary judgment shall set forth in its opposing brief a separate statement of each material fact as to which it is contended there exists a genuine issue to be tried and as to each shall identify the specific document or discovery response or deposition testimony (by page and line) which it is claimed established the issue. An opposing brief may be delivered and served no later than twenty days after service of the motion and supporting brief. Failure to deliver and serve an opposing brief shall not be considered to be a confession of the motion.

7.1 Motion Practice.

All motions, applications, requests and petitions of a miscellaneous nature shall be filed and considered in accordance with this rule. Except as otherwise stated in this rule, failure of a party to observe the requirements of the rule may be deemed an abandonment in whole or in part of that party's position on the pending motion.

(a) Making of Motions. The moving party shall set forth in the motion the basis for the motion and the specific relief requested.

(1) Supporting Briefs. Every motion raising a substantial issue of law shall be supported by a brief. The brief shall contain a concise statement of the reasons for the motion and a citation of authorities relied upon. The brief shall not include recitations of fact not supported as provided in subparagraph (2) below. At the time of the filing of the motion the original only of the brief shall be delivered to the district judge to whom the matter has been assigned or to the magistrate judge to whom the matter has been referred by order or rule, and a copy shall be served on each other party. The brief shall not be filed with the clerk. For cases to be tried in North Platte delivery of the brief shall be to the magistrate judge in Lincoln.

Briefs are not required when the motion raises no substantial issue of law and relief is within the court's discretion. Examples may include motions to which all parties are shown to consent, to file a reply brief, to withdraw as counsel to a party, for an extension of time, or for leave to proceed in forma pauperis. In the event the court concludes that the motion raises a substantial issue of law the failure to submit a brief may be treated as an abandonment of the motion.

(2) Evidence and Evidence Index. Except as to discovery motions provided for in subparagraph (j) below, if a motion requires consideration of matters not established by the pleadings, the moving party at the time of delivery and service of its supporting brief shall file with the clerk such affidavits, as are being relied upon and have not previously been filed, and shall serve a copy of them upon each other party; such documents shall not be attached to the brief. Any materials filed with the clerk in support of a motion shall be accompanied by an index separately listing each item of evidence then being filed and identifying the motion to which it relates. Documents must be identified and authenticated by affidavit. Each affidavit must be made on personal knowledge, set forth such facts as would be admissible in evidence, show affirmatively that the affiant is competent to testify to the matters stated therein, and identify the motion in connection with which the affidavit is filed.

(b) Opposing of Motions.

(1) Opposing Briefs. Any brief opposing a motion shall contain a concise statement of the reasons for opposing the motion and a citation of authorities relied upon. The brief shall not include recitations of fact not supported as provided in subparagraph (2) below. The original only of an opposing brief shall be delivered to the district judge to whom the matter has been assigned or to the magistrate judge to whom the matter has been referred by order or rule, and a copy shall be served on each other party. The brief shall not be filed with the clerk. For cases to be tried in North Platte delivery of the opposing brief shall be to the magistrate judge in Lincoln. No "answer," or "opposition," or "response" to a motion, or any similarly titled "pleading" in opposition to a motion shall be filed, delivered or served. Any opposing brief may be delivered and served no later than ten days after service of the motion and supporting brief, except as to a motion to dismiss or for summary judgment, with respect to which the opposing brief may be delivered and served no later than twenty days after service of the motion and supporting brief. Failure to deliver and serve an opposing brief shall not be considered to be a confession of the motion.

(2) Evidence and Evidence Index. The nonmoving party may, at the time of delivery and service of its opposing brief, file with the clerk such additional evidentiary materials as are being relied upon, and have not previously been filed, and shall serve a copy of them upon each other party. Any materials filed with the clerk in opposition to a motion shall be accompanied by an index separately listing each item of evidence then being filed and identifying the motion to which it relates. Documents must be identified and authenticated by affidavit. Each affidavit must be made on personal knowledge, set forth such facts as would be admissible in evidence, show affirmatively that the affiant is competent to testify to the matters stated therein, and identify the motion in connection with which the affidavit is filed.

(c) Replying to Opposing Briefs and Evidence. No reply brief or evidence shall be permitted, except upon order of the court.

76.1 Bankruptcy Cases.

(b) Withdrawal of Reference.

(1) A reference under this rule to the bankruptcy court may be withdrawn in whole, or in part, by a district judge on his or her own motion, or on timely motion of a party. Motions for withdrawal of reference shall be filed with the clerk of the bankruptcy court. The district court hereby refers motions for withdrawal of reference to the bankruptcy court for a report and recommendation as to disposition.

(2) Motions for withdrawal of reference shall be filed with the clerk of the bankruptcy court. After notice and hearing, a bankruptcy judge shall file a report and recommendation with the clerk of the bankruptcy court and the clerk of the district court. Copies of the report and recommendation shall be served upon the parties by the clerk of the bankruptcy court. The district court may adopt the report and recommendations if no objections are filed within fifteen (15) days of service upon the parties. Objections to the report and recommendation shall be filed with the clerk of the bankruptcy court and the clerk of the district court.

(3) Upon filing of the report and recommendation of the bankruptcy court with the clerk of the district court, the motion for withdrawal of reference and the report and recommendation of the bankruptcy court shall be assigned to a district court judge in accordance with the district court's general order on assignment of cases to district judges. The assigned judge shall decide if the motion to withdraw should be granted. A motion for withdrawal of reference shall not stay any bankruptcy matter pending before a bankruptcy judge, unless a specific stay is issued by a district court judge, or a bankruptcy judge

(4) The district court for cause may on its own motion withdraw, in whole or in part, any case or proceeding referred to the bankruptcy court. The order of withdrawal of reference shall be filed with the clerk of the district court and the clerk of the bankruptcy court. The clerk of the district court shall provide notice to interested parties. Upon receipt of such an order the clerk of the bankruptcy court shall deliver to the clerk of the district court those portions of the bankruptcy or adversary file necessary for the district court proceeding.

(5) If the district court adopts the report and recommendation of the bankruptcy court and withdraws the reference, the order shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court and clerk of bankruptcy court and the notice and delivery-of-records provisions of subparagraph (4) of this rule apply.

(6) If the district court determines that a hearing on objections to the report and recommendation should be held, the order setting the hearing shall be filed with the clerk of the district court and clerk of the bankruptcy court.

(7) If the district court denies a motion for withdrawal of reference, the order shall be filed with the clerk of the bankruptcy court and the clerk of the district court.

(c) Appeal from Bankruptcy Judge Decisions. Appeals from a decision of the bankruptcy court shall be in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 158 and applicable bankruptcy rules. Bankruptcy Rule 8009 respecting the filing of briefs shall not be applicable and briefs shall be filed in accordance with orders of the district court.
